WHO AM I

Dallas based Realtor

and Host of A&E's #1 Home.Made.Nation series, Zombie House Flipping

I'm a REALTOR®. I'm a TV personality. I'm a Real Estate Investor. I'm a speaker. I'm a marketer. And I'm a Rebel!

It was so important to me to build my Real Estate business my way. So I rebelled against the traditional system and marketed products and services outside the norm of the industry. And here I am 6 years later trailblazing the industry and teaching others to do the same. From running a Video Coaching Community to hosting a House Flipping show on a major Television Network, I influence and incite my audience to be their authentic selves and harness their strengths for profits! Founder of: Phamily Capital Partners, LLC, Real Estate Rebel, Phamily Home Team, LLC and Flipside REI Academy.
